

I am both a subscriber and shareholder of XM Satellite Radio. I think the addition of traffic and weather is fantastic, a great addition to an already superb product. NAB is doing the typical knee-jerk reaction trying to keep its sad narrowband services going. Competition will improve service, that's what the free market is all about. I have no problem paying $10 a month for XM Radio, I find it well worth it.

Regards,

Gary Holdsworth